

Hawaii Learning Resource Presents SUMMER LITERACY ACADEMY

A Professional Development Training for Educators

Hawaii Learning Resource is pleased to partner with Assets School and Kanu o ka 'Āina School to provide a Summer Literacy Academy for local educators, presented by Darlene Robertson, Director of Professional Development and Outreach for Assets School.

Date: June 8 through June 24, 2016

Time: 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Place: Kanu o ka 'Āina NCPC School
64-1043 Hi'iaka Street in Waimea

Darlene Robertson is a Certified Member of the Academy of Orton-Gillingham Practitioners and Educators, and a Certified Director in the Slingerland Approach.

Workshop Overview

The Summer Literacy Academy will provide educators with an opportunity to learn the Multisensory Structured Language (MSL) approach and work with a student in a practicum environment.

Teachers will increase their skills in working with struggling readers and students in their classroom. Participants will receive MSL training and support, all course materials and resource documents, and have the opportunity to work one on one with students to practice newly learned skills.

In addition to a completed application, participants must submit a $25 fee to secure their space. This training is provided at no additional cost to participants; however, commitment to attend all training and practicum days is required.

REQUEST AN APPLICATION BY CONTACTING HAWAII LEARNING RESOURCE AT info@hawaiilearningresource.org
